In Dedication to Coach Maturi

Like all truly dedicated people, Joel Maturi begins his days early and often ends them late in the evening, filling each moment with concentration and hard work. Being a prayerful man, a typical day for him starts with Mass, at which he prays to God for help and guidance. Business begins as soon as Mass is finished, for as Dean of Students, Mr. Maturi is responsible for "217", where he counsels students and (as students well know) listens to the many creative excuses students give to avoid receiving detentions. Other administrative duties and student conferences pack the hours from this point forward, all the way up to the three o'clock bell.

For Joel Maturi, this bell does not signal the end of his work, but rather the beginning of yet another aspect of it. As Head Coach of the football and basketball teams, he prepares game strategies, trains his players, and provides inspiration and motivation for each team member. As if that isn't overwhelming enough, as Athletic Director he also coordinates playing schedules for all other sports as well.

In addition to all these different roles that Joel Maturi fills, there is yet another — husband and father. His wife Lois and his three children, Katie, Mark, and Anne, all provide love and support for each of his many endeavors. They understand Joel's total commitment to Edgewood and are rightfully proud of his accomplishments.

For the past thirteen years Mr. Maturi has given his life to help make Edgewood the special place that it is. He is a superb role model for all of us and a positive influence in teaching Christian values both in athletics as well as academics. The Crusader Staff is proud to dedicate the 1982 Yearbook to this extraordinary man.

High School

Scared and unknowing.
Alone and not wanting to be there.
Meeting new people, just trying to blend in.

Sophomore year —
Friendships grow stronger.
Finding our own space.
Getting to know people and getting involved.

Junior year —
So much older and wiser.
Having grown up over the summer, more than in the past sixteen years of life.
Really finding out who our friends are.

Senior year —
Still learning, still growing and changing.
Realizing that there's a great big world out there that we know little or nothing about.
Wondering if we'll have what it takes to succeed.
Scared again, at facing something new.
Remembering friendships and good times that have been.
We will break away to make lives of our own,
But we will never forget what high school has meant to us.

The life of an Edgewood student involves much more than hours in school, piles of homework, and attendance at school activities. For many, a job also plays a significant role. From smiling ice cream experts, checkers, baggers, and waitresses, to the clothing salespersons and McDonald's workers, the contributions of Edgewood students are felt throughout the Madison area.

The Personnel Board is responsible for general student conduct and is designed to serve the students' needs. The committee consists of the Dean of Students, Coach Maturi, and two other members, Fr. Monaghan and Coach Goldsworthy.

The Edgewood High School Advisory Board serves as a supportive, advisory, and evaluative body to the Administration in the areas of academic, student, business and developmental affairs of the school. There are twenty voting members on the Board: fifteen at-large members and one representative from each of the following groups: the student body, faculty, Auxiliary, Athletic Association, and Band Association. Members are selected on the basis of their Christian commitment, their interest in and support of the school, and their ability to contribute to the accomplishments of the objectives of the Board. The Board has three standing Committees whose members meet regularly: Academic and Student Affairs, Finance, and Development.

Math Club

Math Club had a very good year due in part to the help and enthusiasm of the new advisor, Sr. Rosa. This year we were able to have two Varsity and Junior Varsity teams representing Edgewood, something we haven't had in a long time. Also new to the Math team was the election of a club president, David Gower, who proved to be a very competent leader. After a year of great improvements, we hope next year will be a strong, solid year for the Mathletes.

Forensics

Forensics is an oral competition in which participants are judged on their presentation of materials, speeches and demonstrations. Categories in which students competed this year included: significant speech, extemporaneous speaking, play acting, four minute speech, prose reading, declamation and storytelling. The Edgewood forensics team competes in festivals throughout February and March in preparation for the district, and hopefully state festivals held in April. Special thanks to coaches Miss Mertens and Mrs. Schulz who've helped make this a very special year.

Skiers Hit the Slopes

Downhill skiing has become a very popular activity around Edgewood this winter as a new Ski Club was formed under the direction of Mrs. Joan Horinek. The club attracted both beginners as well as accomplished skiers with over 150 students taking part.

The highlight of the season was a 3-day trip to Indianhead Mountain near Wakefield, Michigan, on January 29-31. Four months of planning found 44 students and three chaperones boarding the bus for the long trip north. Seven of the group won gold and silver medals in the free Nastar Race that Saturday. Sophomore Jim Schiavo, a real ski race nut, brought home an unbelievable five gold medals. "Same time next year" is the club's motto, for they hope to make reservations again at the Indianhead Lodge for another fantastic vacation in 1983.

A total of three night ski trips to local ski areas were well attended. The first trip was to Devil's Head on December 11. Later, forty-one skiers enjoyed an evening at Tyrol Basin, and fifty-three returned again to Devil's Head on February 5.

Chaperones for local trips have been faculty Sr. Maureen, Nancy Nemecek, Wade Dallagrana and Joan Horinek; Sr. Elizabeth, principal of the Campus School; and parents Dr. Mike Eberhardt and Ernie Horinek. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Horinek, Jerry Gardner also chaperoned the ski club trip to Indianhead.

Acceptance into National Honor Society is based on four characteristics: leadership, character, service, and scholarship. This year, of the many students who applied due to scholarship eligibility, nineteen who were highly rated by the faculty in the other three categories were accepted. Since the main goals and activities of N.H.S. are centered around service and the community, it has become a tradition at Edgewood for N.H.S. members to highlight this service through the organization of the annual bloodmobile drive. The N.H.S. worked hard to make this year's drive as successful as it has been in the past.

Envoy

The Envoy has completed another year of "success in print." Led by that more famous night editor Don "Summertime" Regina, Co-editors Nick Schrantz and Corey Hutchison, with the invaluable help of the entire Envoy staff, managed to put out 9 quality issues in the 81-82 season. Hard-hitting editorials, deep and investigative reporting and syndicated columns helped to say it all in black and white.

The main headlines featured such titles as "Alcohol: an Underlying problem;" "TRASH, TRASH, TRASH" and "Edgewood Adds Second Pool." These stories and more informed the students of just how to cope with everyday life in our not-so-stable society.

In approaching articles of the utmost importance, the writers and editors refused to settle for compromising reporting; rather we told it like it was and gave our opinions when necessary. Nick and Corey felt that it was imperative to inform — not cover up.

The year was smooth and exciting — at the editors' table. In the society — the year was rough and, at times, tragic. We covered it and hope you enjoyed it.

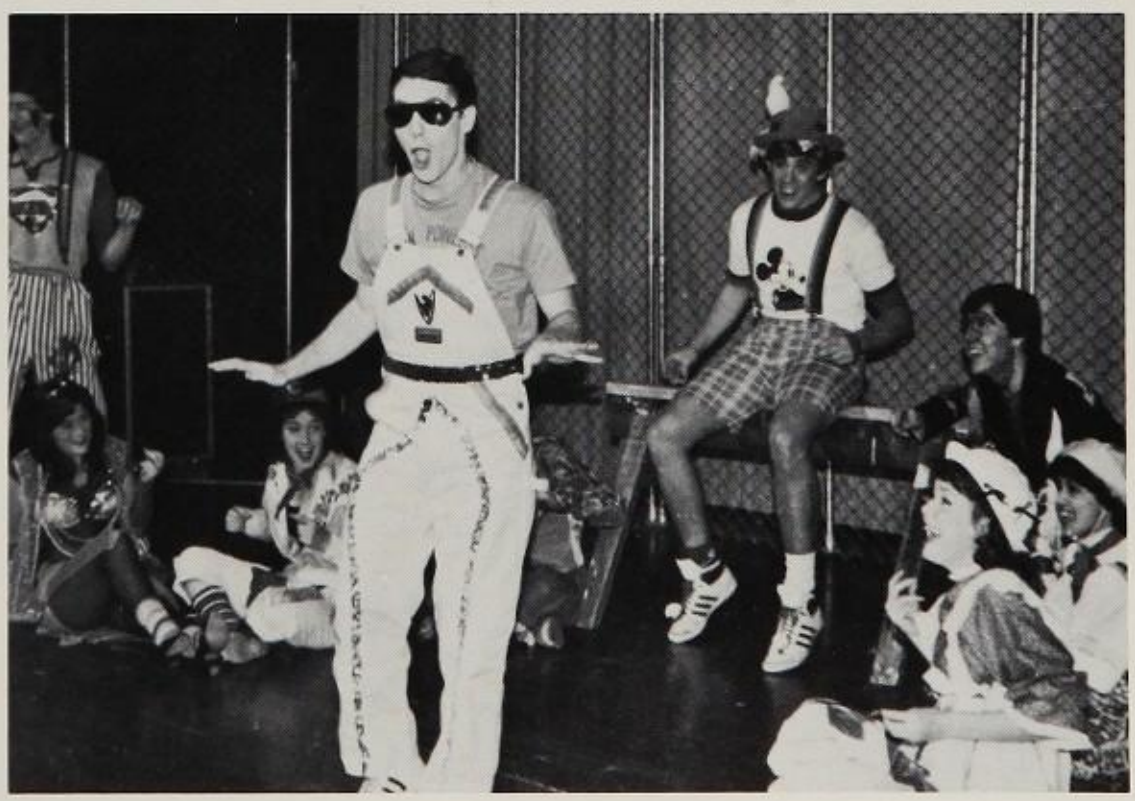
Social Hour



Edgefest 1981

Edgefest, as in years past, was a huge success. The spirit and hard work of the entire Edgewood community helped to keep the Edgewood "fund" alive and well. The annual Bridgefest Luncheon launched the September weekend's activities, soon followed by the opening of the games, concessions, and midway. Local area artists displayed their talents in crafts, dance, and song, while in the Gay Nineties Saloon spectators enjoyed Edgewood's own productions of the Edgefest "Follies." The fun and activites continued until Sunday evening, when another successful Edgefest Weekend drew to a close.

Homecoming 1981

Homecoming '81 was one filled with class songs, signs, spirit, and cheers. Excitement was in the air as people crowded the gym for the pep rally, where the court was to be introduced. Queen Randi Riley and King John Peterson reigned over their court of Carol O'Gara and Todd Green, Kim Mistretta and Corey Hutchison, Anne Mack and Greg Meyer, Traci Tisserand and Jim Baltes, and Sarah Dunn and Tim Kinney.

After the pep rally, four powerhouse teams battled for the powderpuff football title. That evening Edgewood's awesome football team came out victorious in the fight against Fort Atkinson.

As the weekend continued, seniors gathered in the gym for a wild and crazy barn dance. On Saturday night couples moved to the Commons to listen and dance to the tunes of the Shakedown Band. It was the perfect end to a perfect weekend. The memories of Homecoming '81 will remain forever for all who participated.

GODSPELL

Everyone agrees — the fall musical, Godspell, was a hit. After weeks of practice, in early November the cast put on five excellent shows for enthusiastic crowds. The play was praised both for its impressive dancing and singing, and for the exceptional acting performances by the cast.

The show required a great deal of energy and enthusiasm by the actors. Outstanding performances by Mike Fuccillo as Jesus and Corey Hutchison as Judas, supported by the strong cast, made it a success. The production included many theatrical devices such as question-and-answer and charades. An additional feature was the elaborate lighting effects which were made possible by the new computerized light control board.

Many people were involved in the production of Godspell. The band, the chorus, and the stage crew, as well as the cast, worked very hard under the direction of Pam Hanson, Dennis McKinley, and Marie Trachte and Tom Terrien, the choreographer. The show was a lot of fun for those involved, including the audiences. Godspell was, indeed, one of the best musicals Edgewood has ever presented.

Christmas Concerts

Fine Arts Festival

It was the middle of third quarter, and things were dragging along. One day you walked into the library and noticed something different. There were handmade clothes on display, and the conference rooms were filled with art work. "Fine Arts Days '82" was in full swing.

On display in the west end of the library were the projects of Outdoor Kits classes. Among some of the more popular items were running suits and pull-over windbreakers. The work these classes put into making their garments paid off as the quality was that of some of the best store-bought clothes.

Near the Outdoor Kits display, in the conference rooms was the art exhibit. The various types of artwork included charcoal drawings, watercolors, pen and ink drawing, and silk-screening. The subjects ranged from various landscapes to portraits. A great amount of effort and detail went into the artwork and was certainly noticed by the people who took the time to look over the exhibit.

At the opposite end of the library, near the doorway, was the student poetry display. Those who stopped to read the poems were clearly impressed by the creative efforts of the junior and senior writing students.

Student music and forensic recitals took place around the corner from the poetry display. Among the types of speech performances presented were declamation, prose reading, and play acting. The music recitals included everything from classical to pop. Among the more popular groups was the Swing Choir, which sang for Wednesday's Grandparents' Day, and the Jazz Ensemble, which played a rendition of the "Flintstones" theme song.

"Fine Arts Days '82" provided an excellent opportunity for students to share some of their talents which quite often go unnoticed. The success of the event can be attributed to the students who participated and the organizational efforts of the faculty.

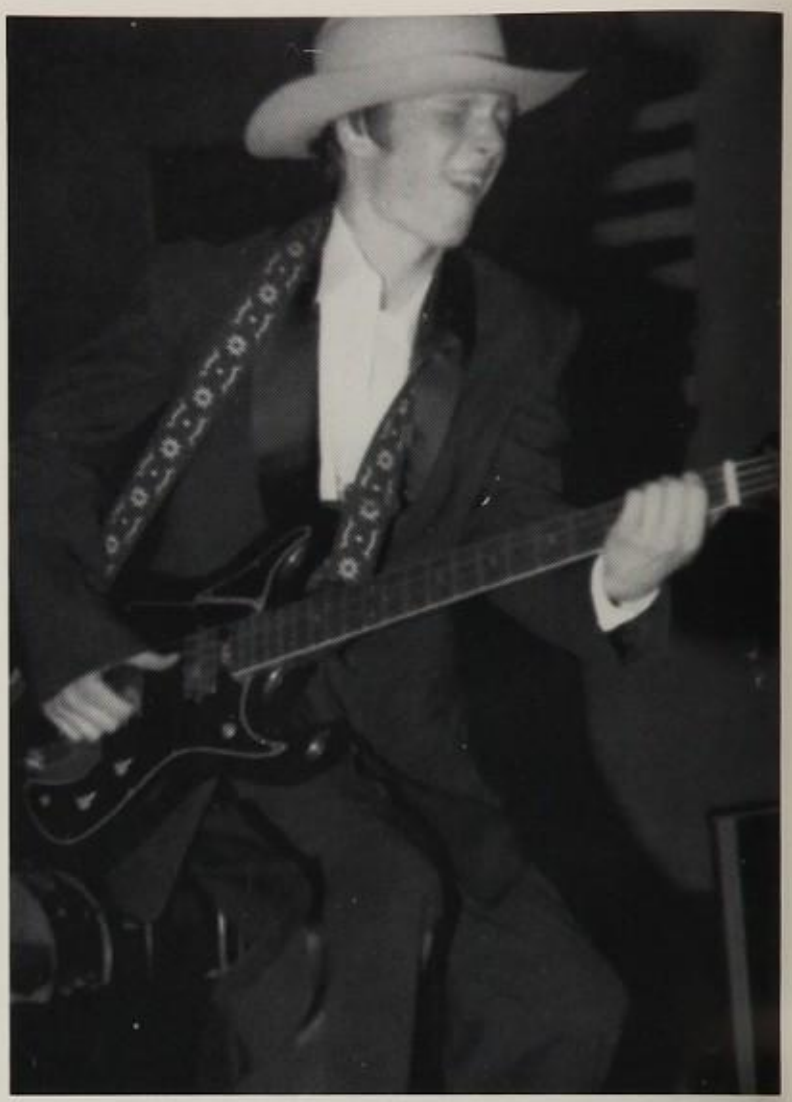
The D.J. and



This year the seniors revitalized the idea of an impersonation dance. It was called the D.J. and Impersonation Dance to keep the rocking at an all time low, but it was a massive wailing fest anyway. It starred seven bands, including the first all-girl band ever to hit the Edgewood High School gym. The presence of "God" was felt when Bruce "The Boss" Springsteen brought the crowd to their knees. The Go-Go's picked up where the Boss left off and proved that they were the only band there that had "The Beat." They "Rushed" right through to the Stones. Mick rocked the gym as he strutted across the stage in his tight white pants. Paranoia set in as the Kinks asked, "Where have all the good times gone?" Next, acid was rocked as VanHalen cranked out the tunes. The remaining few asked, "Who is this band, anyway?" All in all it was an awesome evening and proved to be more entertaining than "The Diary of a Madman."

Tourney

The 1982 Boys' Basketball Tournament in LaCrosse surpassed the expectations of the four hundred fans who attended. A good time was expected by all (except the chaperones, hotel manager, and other hotel guests), and the somewhat unexpected success attained by the basketball team added to the festivities.

Edgewood's fans weren't going to be out-cheered by the fans from any of the other three schools in the tournament, even the hometown LaCrosse Aquinas fans. The spirited cheers could be heard everywhere in the LaCrosse Center, and a sea of gold could be seen in the Edgewood sections since many fans had purchased Edgewood Tourney T-shirts.

Undaunted by the security guards, the enthusiastic fans invaded the court after the first game for a victory celebration. The basketball team had pulled off a major upset by beating fifteenth ranked Eau Claire Regis. Edgewood outshot and outhustled Regis, winning by a single point. The cheering fans didn't quit as they left the arena, for chants of "MECCA, MECCA" could be heard on each bus. The partying carried on well into the night and into the early hours of the morning. However, the lack of sleep didn't subdue the Edgewood fans at the championship game; the final score was the only thing that finally dampened their spirits. LaCrosse Aquinas won by a single point.

Despite the disappointing loss, some memories will never be forgotten — the senior guys "jamming" to Bob Marley while dressed in trench coats, the "Todd is God" sign and cheers, and the Edgewood Tourney T-shirts.

Twirp '82

"Long and Winding Road,"
Was this year's theme;
Edgewood's Twirp
Was quite a scene.
Sponsored by Soph's,
It was quite a blast;
We hoped the night
would always last.
Axel Grease was this year's band;
They made the night so very grand.
'Twas the girls' only chance
To ask that special guy to a dance.
It seemed like everyone had a ball,
"A good time was had by all."

Edgewood's Second Smash . . .

For the first time in many years, the Edgewood Drama Department staged two major shows in one school year. Following the enormously successful Godspell, a decision was made to present a comedy in the spring. Don't Drink the Water, a comedy by Woody Allen, was chosen from among many, and tryouts were held in January.

Some fifty people, many new to "show business," auditioned for the twenty available parts. Pam "It's all too much" Hansen cast and directed the show. Principal actors were Peter Rudy, Lisa Stein, Dan Presser, and Kathy Mortell. The supporting cast included Tom Grantham, Paul Dittman, Bill Sirny, Monte Beyer, Aaron Gavin, Bob Davis, Fran Hewuse, Pete Felten, Dennis Corcoran, Kirsten Aexel, Becky Rasch, Jane Didier, Mike Bongard, and Melanie Flynn.

Over an eight-week period, the show was crafted into a fast-paced and hysterically funny production. When it hit the Edgewood stage in late March, the crowds were small but enthusiastic. Those who saw the show loved it, and word of mouth helped to fill the house on closing night.

A tense situation was created during that final show when a freak explosion burned Father Drobney (Tom Grantham). Luckily he was not seriously injured, but the situation gave the other actors an unforgettable lesson in ad-libbing. The overall success of Don't Drink the Water, however, perhaps foreshadows a new Edgewood tradition — two shows a year.

Prom '82

Picture, if you will, dozens of lovely girls dressed in enchanting gowns out on the dance floor with handsome men clothed in spotless tuxedos. Such was the scene at this year's Junior Prom, which was held at Howard Johnson's on May 1st. Festivities commenced at 8:30 and included music furnished by Chaser. Topping off a dream-filled evening was the crowning of Peter Rudy and Michelle Christmann as King and Queen. Their court included Dave Holm, Melanie Flynn, Tammy Dvorak, Pat Kelly, Lisa Gardner, Dan Presser, Julie Grantham, Charles Knapp, Beth Zanoya, and Mike Peterson. Everyone who attended will hold good memories of the delightful evening for a long time to come.

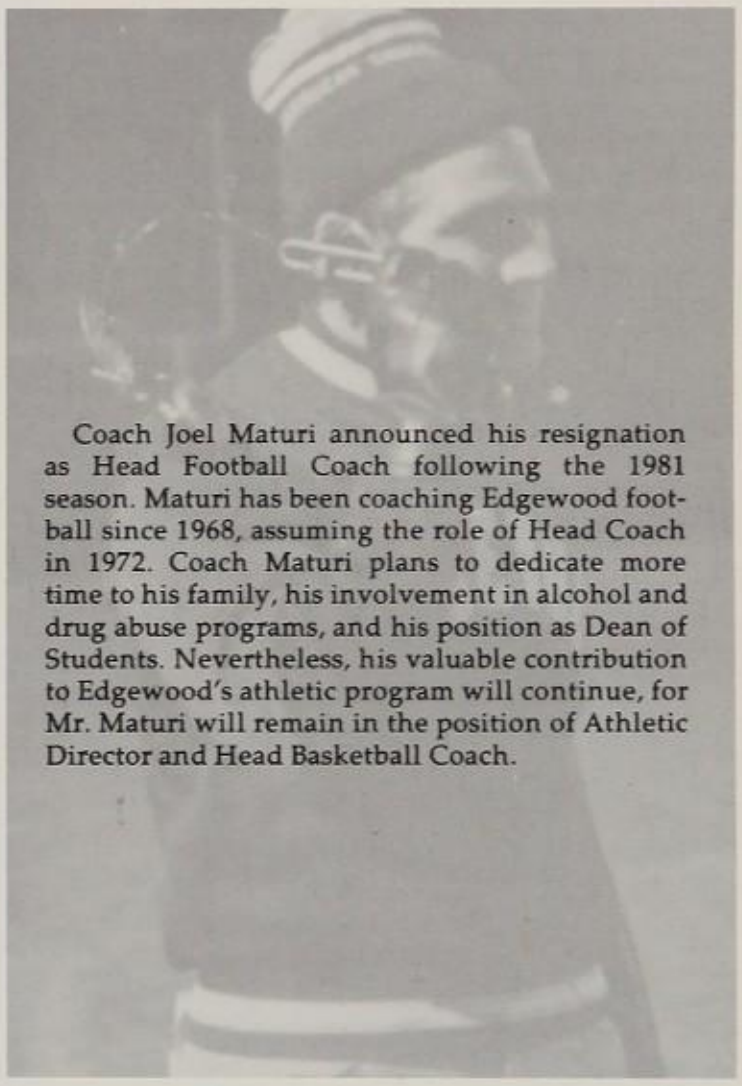
The 1981 Edgewood Varsity Football team finished with a 6-4 record this year, attaining their goal of a winning season, the first since 1974. This year's team was led by captains John Baltes and Tim Kinney, with eighteen other returning seniors. Five of these seniors were named to the All-City Teams. These included John Baltes, Geary Beyler, Dan Healy, Tim Kinney, and Steve Stein. Many others were honored on the second team and given honorable mention. Special recognition goes to John Baltes, who received State honors.

This year's strength was the defense, which ranked second in the city's standing. In his first year as the head defensive coach, John Vraga did a great job in preparing the defense for its opponents. The defense, nick-named "the fog," lived up to its name by shutting out three teams and allowing a total of only 462 yards in the air.

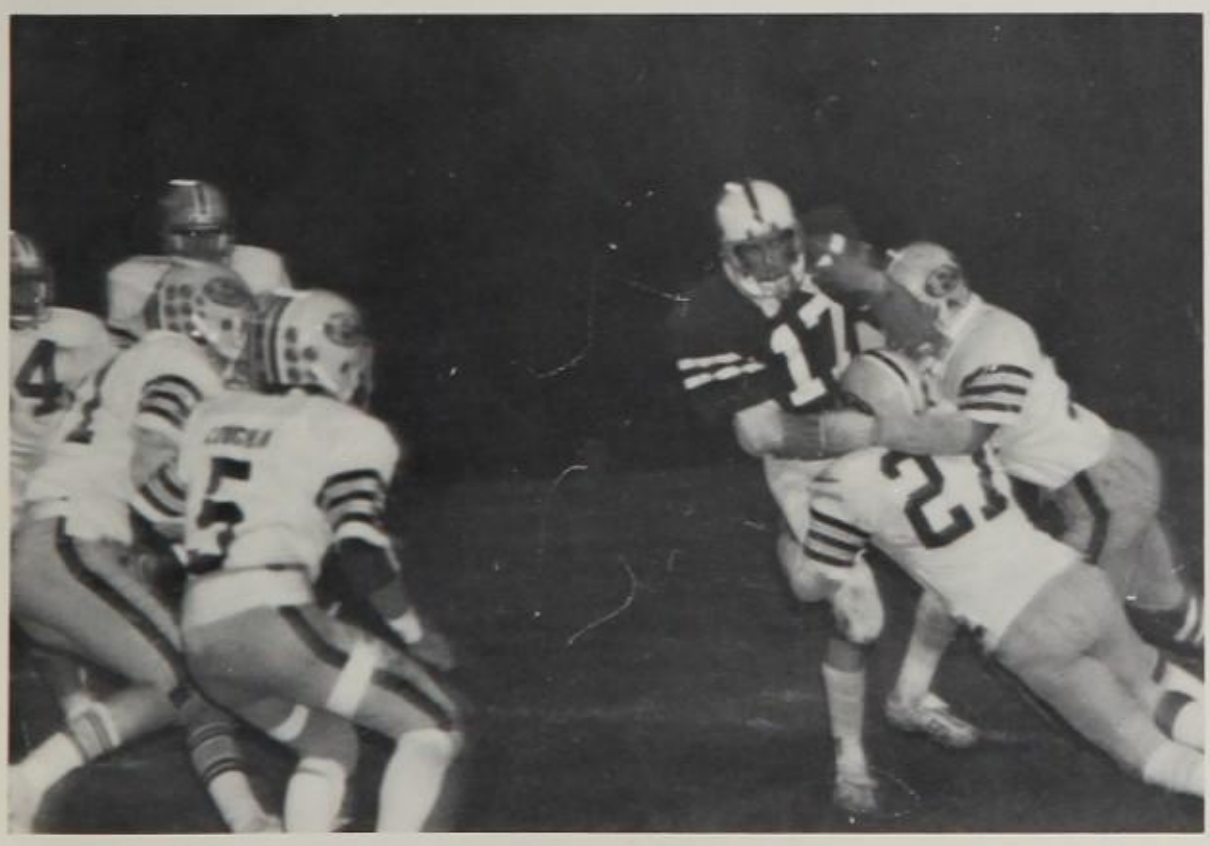
The offense had a shakey start, scoring only 19 points in the first three games, but then they came on strong, averaging almost 18 points a game in the remainder of the year. Geary Beyler, ranked fourth in all-time city rushing, had an outstanding year. First year coach Jim Schneider, using his calm fashion of coaching, helped perfect the backfield motion. Quarterback Greg Meyer, elected most improved player, helped to balance the offensive attack by completing passes to Steve Starr, Dan Healy, Flint Fleming and Jeff Aebly.

In the words of head coach Joel Maturi, "This was the season we turned the program around." In the eyes of the team and its followers, he was the key.

John Baltes



Coach Joel Maturi announced his resignation as Head Football Coach following the 1981 season. Maturi has been coaching Edgewood football since 1968, assuming the role of Head Coach in 1972. Coach Maturi plans to dedicate more time to his family, his involvement in alcohol and drug abuse programs, and his position as Dean of Students. Nevertheless, his valuable contribution to Edgewood's athletic program will continue, for Mr. Maturi will remain in the position of Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach.



Prospects to Come

The Sophomore Football Team had high hopes at the beginning of the season. These hopes were dampened after a tough loss to Monroe in the opening game, but the team regrouped and came back the next week to beat Stoughton. This lose-win pattern continued throughout the season until the last game.

After a severe loss to Middleton, with the help of coaches, the team bounced back for a devastating victory over the Oregon Panthers, then finished out the season by slipping by Fort Atkinson in an offensive struggle.

The team showed real dedication this season and enjoyed playing football. They even went the whole year practicing with Varsity. With the tremendous guidance of Coach Holmquist and Coach Burrows, the team finished with a winning season of 4 and 3 and a taste of the "Edgewood Experience."

1981 was a good year for the Freshman Football Team which ended 3-3 in the city conference. The team started out the year with three straight losses, but though the coaches and players were down, they stuck it out together. Head Coach Jack Kolb, along with his assistants Randy Trainer and John Fiscus, made a few changes, and things started to turn around. Everything that went wrong before suddenly started to go right. The team came out with three tough consecutive wins under their belts. The loss to a very impressive Holy Name team at the close of the year was a disappointment, but the team is proud of its accomplishments and is looking forward to next year. All in all, 1981 was a learning experience for those freshmen lucky enough to have played football.

In the six years of Edgewood High School Soccer history, perhaps the strongest and most talented team was the 1981 Crusaders. Led by a nucleus of determined seniors and a host of very gifted sophomores and juniors, the team achieved a record of 9-2-5 and finished one-half game out of second place in the city's standings.

As the defending WISAA State Runner-up, the Crusader team was coached by Jim Mullen and Jim Kuelbs, who made some changes and filled some spots. A newly-designed offense fit Edgewood like a glove, and its punch was felt by the defending WISAA State Champion Milwaukee Pius ten times in two games.

The team's defense performed outstandingly throughout the year, recording six shutouts and allowing only fourteen goals in sixteen games. When the final whistle blew, the team could look back on its season with pride in its accomplishments, happy to have played well for the Crusaders' supportive fans.

The Junior Varsity Soccer Team enjoyed a very successful season, finishing with a 12-4 record and playing exceptionally well the entire time. The offensive was tough, which enabled the coaches to substitute freely. The defense was solid when put to the test, depsite the lack of experience of many players. Since the team had many outstanding freshmen and sophomores, the teams of the future should be real powerhouses. The entire team is appreciative of the efforts of its dedicated coaches Jim Mullen, Jim Kuelbs, John Blondin, and John LeBreche.

"Netter" Better

Edgewood girls' Varsity Volleyball Team started out the '81 season with high hopes. With six returning letterwinners and six additional girls from the Junior Varsity and Freshman teams, it seemed that the girls had a good chance to be a tough team.

As the season started, the team lost several games to key teams such as Memorial and West. However, as the season progressed, the team tried a different offense and defense that complemented their game plan. By working on this strategy in several games and tournaments, the team grew stronger. By the end of October they were ready to compete in their State Regional. The girls took first place with a caliber of volleyball that was surprising to everyone. This allowed them to participate in the State Tournament, in which they tied for fifth place.

The patience and hard work of coaches Dorothy and Tom Goldsworthy contributed to the final success of the team — a success which the team hopes will carry over into the season of '82.

The 1981 Junior Varsity Volleyball team proved to be highly successful. The team consisted of four juniors and eight sophomores: Kim Clerkin, Carol Schuman, Nora Berigan, Kellie Craft, Ann Gorman, Lisa Schmiedicke, Toni Puccio, Ellen Roach, Michelle Ebben, Katherine Statz, Becky Rasch, and Julie Bleifhus. The J.V. squad finished with a 10-2 record, with losses only to West and Stoughton.

Perhaps the most exciting match of the season was that against West. Both teams were at their best. In the first game West narrowly defeated Edgewood. In the next game Edgewood came back to win by an equally close margin. The last game was the deciding factor. West was playing better than ever, returning each hit and really hustling, while Edgewood was showing itself to be no less than awesome. Yet, in the end, West prevailed.

This year's dynamic team was once again coached by Tom Goldsworthy. With his knowledge and patience the team learned how to skillfully and successfully play the game of volleyball.

Kellie Craft

The Freshman Volleyball Team of 1981-82, coached by Dave Schultz, had a winning season. The overall record was 12 wins and 4 losses.

Dave Schultz was an excellent coach. In the beginning he taught the team all the fundamentals of the sport, which was primarily what helped them have a winning season. He was understanding whenever a team member had a problem and wasn't able to practice. His best characteristic, however, was that he gave everyone a fair chance.

The gold team consisted of team captain Tammy Whalen, Janet Maffet, Kitty Earl, Sheree Adams, Jenny Hackworthy, Amy Bitterman, and Lisa Killmeyer. Their record was 5 wins and 2 losses.

The maroon team consisted of team captain Beth Frisch, Nicole Crapser, Jo Ellen Bleifuhs, Amelia Gavin, Monica Mason, Ann Wagner, Sarah Burgess, and Corinne Helman. Their record was 6 wins and 1 loss.

The team also played 2 games in which the maroon and gold teams combined. Of those 2, they won 1 and lost 1.

The most spectacular match of the season was against Madison LaFollette. Both of the Edgewood teams lost their first game. In the second game both were also down by approximately 5 points but came back to win the match. It was a memorable game. It was a memorable season.

The Edgewood golf team's bid for its second State Championship fell short this fall, although the Crusaders started off well, winning their first five dual meets until losing to eventual WISAA State Champions Green Bay Premontre. The team did take second place in the State Tournament, however, and were represented by seniors Jim Schuman, Mark Hird and Corey Hutchison, and freshman Dan Aehl. Jim Schuman was state medalist for the second year in a row, the only golfer in WISAA history to achieve this accomplishment. Coach Greg Symanski devoted much time and energy to the team, an effort which helped make the season so successful.

QUEENS OF THE COURT

With the help of coaches Sue Kuzan and Joe Horstmeier, the girls' tennis season concluded on a winning note. Their final dual match record stood at 7-5, and the team had impressive showings in two invitational tournaments.

The highlight of the season was a victory over Beloit Catholic in a dual match. Never having beaten this state contender, Edgewood won five out of nine matches.

The varsity squad consisted of freshman Kim Backs, sophomore Theresa Kuehne, juniors Michelle Christmann, Beth Neuman, Ruth Bitterman, and senior Sue Buggy.

With the loss of only one senior and the strength of the many junior varsity players, next year promises to be the best ever for the team.

Swimmers Make a Splash

This year was the best ever for the girls' swim team. With the help of Coach Molly Baer, the team posted a 6-4 dual meet record. In the annual Parker Relays, Edgewood came in fourth place out of a field of ten.

The highlight of the year was an invitation to the Small School State Swim Meet in Shorewood, a first for the team. All the hard work paid off, for the team finished third out of eighteen schools, with Ann Lenling being named the most valuable swimmer for the year.

Although the team will lose three seniors, the twelve returning letter winners are looking forward to another successful season in '82.

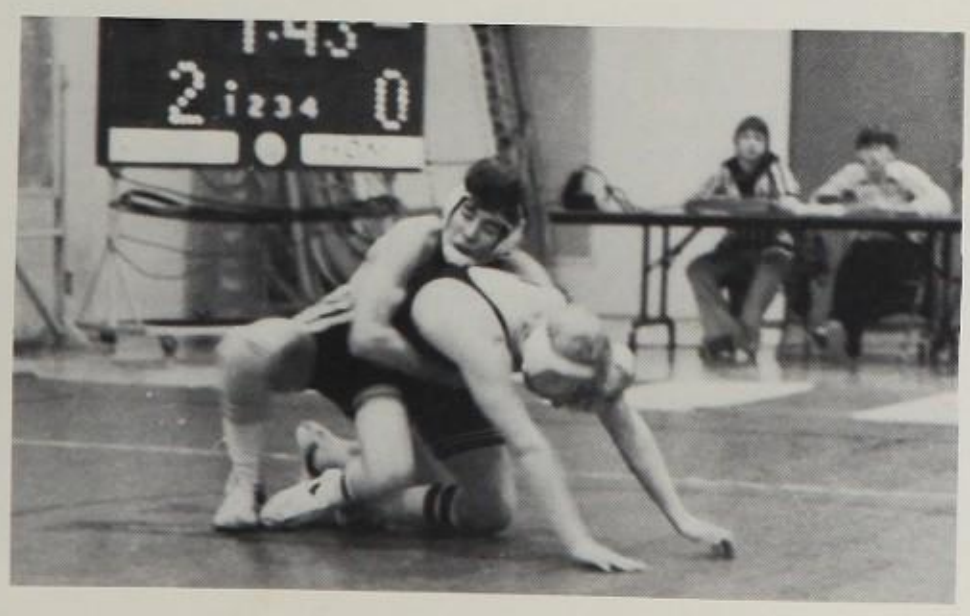
John Baltes, 185 pound 1982 State Champion



The fighting eight — John Baltes, Bob Gentilli, Brian Moore, Tony Galiano, Mike Dealy, Mike Hoeser, Tim Ebben, and Chandler Zillman — all proud, all close friends, all with one common purpose, to win. There are the few that survived from the eighteen that started in the beginning of the season.

Each and every one of them had the training; the test was just remembering that training when on the mat. All were trained by a 180-pound muscle-bound, three-year veteran of a State Championship, Coach Kruckoski and his side-kick, Assistant Coach Riska. These eight male specimens were whipped into shape and cast off into battle.

Chandler, the 98 pounder — (never did eat all those vegetables and so never did weigh over 93 pounds), gave it his all every time he walked out onto the mat.

Ebben, the 114 pounder — knew how to wrestle and did just that.

Hoeser, the 126 pounder — seemed as if he couldn't win a match without an injury. The team awarded him with the Rookie of the Year Award.

Dealy, the 132 pounder — always knew how many lights there were in the gym in which the team had just wrestled. But he got better and ended the season with a good record. Mike was awarded Most Improved Player Award.

Galiano, the 138 pounder — if Tony weren't the best staller, he probably wouldn't be where he is today. Tony can stall so well that he makes the other guy look like he's stalling. He was voted as one of the co-captains and received the MVP Award.

Moore, the 145 pounder — also had a small problem with making weight; he just couldn't eat enough food! (Girls, don't you wish that could be you?) Brian gave his all throughout the season and did an admirable job.

Gentilli, 155 pounds — came in at mid-season. For his dedication he should receive "The Heart of Gold" Award.

Baltes, 185 pounder — the calmest wrestler anyone has ever seen. Just before his match, he dressed, had a couple of teaspoons of honey, took a little time for psyching up, and then he wrestled. Everyone on the team just loved the way John smiled at his opponent during the match, particularly just before he pinned the guy. John was also voted co-captain and earned the most pins and takedown trophies. The team sure could use another wrestler like John next year!

Why not think about it? If you want to be whipped into the best of shape, be one of the few, one of the brave, one of the mighty, one of the proud — the Edgewood Wrestling Crusaders!

A Season of Contrasts

FRONT ROW: T. Green, J. Pettinger, D. Holm, S. Frisch, F. Fleming, Y. Colas SECOND ROW: R. Barry, K. Delaney, D. Healy, J. Schuman, G. Meyer, Manager Jim Krueger THIRD ROW: M. Rudat, D. Becker, G. Carr, M. Brener

The 1981-82 basketball season did not fulfill all the hopes and ambitions of the players and coaches. The team finished with a disappointing record of 7-15 overall.

Although the season was oftentimes rough, the team was characterized by a fighting spirit and a willingness to work hard to win. Playing a very difficult schedule, including some of the best teams in the state, the Crusaders showed an ability to play best against tough teams. When illness and injury affected nearly every player on the team and held three starters out of one game, the Crusaders pulled together and managed to beat Janesville Parker, co-leader of the Big Eight Conference.

Of the fifteen losses, twelve were of five points or less — Edgewood was always in it right down to the wire. With six more points a game, the Crusaders would have enjoyed a 19-3 record. The essence of the season was captured by the heart-breaking one point loss to LaCrosse Aquinas in the championship game of the Region I tournament, which prevented Edgewood from going to the State Tournament.

Scott Frisch and Dan Healy were voted co-captains of the team and provided strong leadership and good example all year. Robert Barry, voted MVP of the team, was the leading scorer. In addition to these three players, eight others lettered: juniors Mark Brener, Yago Colas, Flint Fleming, and seniors Todd Green, Greg Meyer, Jim Schuman, Steve Starr and Kelley Delaney.

While the '81-82 season may be remembered by many for its disappointments, the players will recall it as a season of contrasts. When tempted to doubt their abilities, they discovered considerable talents. When their confidence was questioned, they found genuine pride and self-respect. Though the record won't show it, through the tenacity and determination of themselves and their coaches, the players learned what it meant to be a winner.

The team would like to thank Coach Joel Maturi and his assistants Peter Brey, Jon Morgan and Steve Ellis for their guidance, support and hard work throughout the season. A special thanks to the manager, Jim Krueger, and to the cheerleaders, parents, students and Edgewood fans for their tremendous spirit and support all year.

Sophomores

This year's sophomore basketball team had a very successful season despite a tough schedule. The team finished 17-4, with the best sophomore record in the city. Coach Jon Morgan was able to allow many players into every game since the team was very balanced.

Freshmen

For all the people who participated in the freshman basketball team of 1981-82, it was very gratifying to see the perfect record of 13-0 that was achieved. Except for the 49-48 nail-biter over a strong Memorial team, the freshmen established a good reputation throughout the city for destroying the opposition. Led by head coach Joh Vraga and assistant coach Jack Kolb, the freshman Crusaders "ended" most of their games by half time. For the second and third string players, the second half of most games was a good opportunity to improve their skills. This should strengthen the team for the next three years.

The starters on the freshman squad were John Pettinger, Paul Jacoby, Dan Aehl, Chip Mackenzie, and Fred Schernecker. Other players who saw a lot of action were Dan Lynch, Zach Schrantz, Pat Delaney, Andy Caulum, and Geoff Gallagher.

Although the team worked very hard throughout the season, the girls' JV Basketball team finished with a somewhat disappointing 5-10 record. Nevertheless, great improvement was shown by all of the team members, with two especially memorable wins over Monroe and Memorial, both in overtime. Captain Julie "Magic" Bleifuhs provided both leadership and powerful scoring for the team; Manager Kathy Tonar contributed invaluable support and dedication, and Coach Liz McClean guided the team with spirit and enthusiasm.

Freshmen

The girls' freshman basketball team had a banner year, for their outstanding season record of 12-2 was second best in the city. The two games in which they were defeated were lost by a total of only three points.

With the fine coaching of Mrs. Carol Michalski, the girls were able to surprise many opposing teams. One can describe the season as total team effort. The girls worked extremely hard and learned skills that will be helpful in the next three years. Hopefully, their upcoming seasons will be as successful and enjoyable as this year.

Girls' Basketball: Building a Strong Team

The 1981-82 Girls' Varsity Basketball Team ended their regular season with another winning record of twelve wins and seven losses. The girls worked their best throughout the season and put in much effort. Numerous hours of devotion of the players and coaches to build up a strong new team paid off, and the girls proved to be awesome.

In Regional Tournaments, the girls were defeated in the opening game by LaCrosse Aquinas. Edgewood had the lead by twelve points in the third quarter, but LaCrosse came back strong to take the win.

The team was led by two seniors, Dianne Aebly and Randi Riley, whose leadership was greatly appreciated. Dianne Shulla was the highest scorer on the team and placed second in the city. She was also chosen for first team All-City, and Mary Schmiedicke was picked for second team All-City. With the majority of players being juniors, next year's team should be spectacular.

The girls have come a long way since the beginning of the season and are very grateful for the patience and guidance of coaches Mrs. Goldsworthy and Cathy Burghardt, whose efforts made this progress possible.

Slapshot Drama

The Edgewood varsity hockey team roared out to 5-0 early in the season. Although the Crusaders were always in the top ten of the state rankings, even after the "slump" they experienced mid-season, they somehow regained the awesome power they displayed early in the season. Under the guiding hand of dynamic head coach Steve Rothering and his dedicated assistants Jeff Newhauser and Mike Ring, the Crusaders battled to a 14-10 record.

Edgewood met neighborhood rival West for the first time in five years, and the Regents edged the Crusaders 5-4 in an overtime decision. In Edgewood's second outing with a Madison school, the Crusaders were denied a victory over LaFollette by a game score of 6-4.

Undaunted by a slow second half, the Crusaders enthusiastically invaded K.B. Willet Arena in Stevens Point but quickly had their State Championship dreams dashed to bits. Edgewood was crushed by Fond du Lac St. Mary's Springs 10-1 in the opening round of State Tournament play. The Crusaders rebounded to avenge the first loss by pounding Chippewa Falls McDonnell 2-0. Physically and emotionally drained, the skaters fell to Green Bay Premontre 4-0, and the Crusaders finished fourth.

Erik Moe became Edgewood's all-time leading scorer with 110 career points. Jim Addamo moved into a tie for second on the list with 102 points. Special recognition was given to several team members at the All-City Hockey Banquet held at Edgewood on March 16th. Jim Addamo was named a member of the First Team All-City, and honorable mention went to Erik Moe, Dave Jensen, and Scott Klinek. The Crusaders graduate eleven seniors who will be sorely missed, but 10 returning lettermen hope to fill the void.

J.V. Hockey

The Junior Varsity Hockey Team ended its season with a record-shattering 1-17-1 finish. Comprised of three returning JV's, three sophomore newcomers, and seven freshmen, the team went out determined to prove its superiority. However, the team soon discovered that intentions were not always the same as reality — not only were other teams slightly better, but they were also bigger, averaging about six inches taller and forty pounds heavier.

Though suffering many unsatisfying defeats, the team never got down on itself, trying to handle every game optimistically. Everyone on the team had their own moments of individual glory, but as a team, the greatest moment was the spectacular win over rivals West Midgets by an "overwhelming" victory, 2-1.

Leading the Crusaders were co-captains Rich "Scoring Machine" Vorndran, John "Bruiser" Cusack, and freshman co-captain "Lean Machine" Jerry Kuypers. John "Savage" Jensen came on late in the season to contribute two goals, including the winning goal in the team's first victory. Scott Noles, who deserves strong recognition for his contributions to the team, undertook the vacant position of goalie and did a super job. Returning JV Phil "Crusher" Lindgard, plus newcomers Matt Hanson, Pat "Riles" Riley, Terry Drummond, Stu Stone, Todd Menge, Troy Johnson, Mike Wahlin, and Steve "the Animal" Bunge each gave their best to the team throughout the season.

The Cross Country Team had a fairly successful season this year. As Coach Regina put it, "We beat the people we should have beaten and lost to the people we should have lost to." This was true except for the upset over a highly-favored McFarland team, which was the highlight of the team's 6-6 dual meet record. Mt. Horeb, Platteville, Monroe, McFarland and Holy Name were all part of the very competitive schedule. All these teams were among the best in their respective classes. The CC team also competed in many of the major invitationals of the area, including the Verona, West and Janesville invitationals along with the Holy Name Relays.

The season was not as successful as was originally predicted, however, even though there was a strong nucleus of seniors returning as well as many "NG's" (new guys) coming out for the team. One of the reasons for this disappointment was that illness and injury chased on the heels of the team throughout the season. Six out of the eleven runners who participated on varsity were affected, at one time or another, by either illness or injury.

There were six seniors who participated on the Varsity level. Mike Delaney, Ed Donagan and Bill Smith were three of the six who ran well when they were healthy. They received strong support from seniors John "the Giffer" Gaffney, Chip Krauss, and Kelley Delaney, who ran first for the team and was honored by the runners as MVP. The rest of the Varsity was made up of: junior Pete Rudy, dubbed team comedian; sophomores Jimmy Roach, Mike Shea and Richy "the eternal freshman" Thompson; Joe Hendricks, the sole freshman this year. The Varsity worked hard all year and finished in the middle of the pack, 10th of 16 teams, at the State Meet.

The J.V.'s had a very successful season, competing a tough schedule and finishing with a 5-1 dual meet record. The J.V. harriers consisted of: juniors Greg Carr, John Trachte, Eric Zeegers and Dan Birrenkott, who was chosen as the "unsung hero" of the team; sophomores Tim Berger, Steve Everton, and Tim Curren; and freshmen Pat Delaney, Mike Farrell, Mark Menge, Andy Meyer and Paul Tatarsky. With this large group of underclassmen, the future looks very bright for Edgewood Cross Country.

The team was guided through the season by coaches Don Regina and Tom Kirschbaum, whose dedication, enthusiasm, and subtle humor kept the team going during difficult times, making all the hard work rewarding and enjoyable.

The 1981 cross country season marked the third year that Edgewood has had a girls' team. This year there were eleven dedicated runners: freshmen Colleen Carey, Mary Mack, Gina Manarino, and Patricia Plunket; sophomores Katy McCormick, Sara Dallman, and Donna Farris; junior Molly McCormick; seniors Randi Riley, Anne Felten, and Anne Morgan.

One of the highlights of this season was the first girls' cross country home meet, in which Edgewood conquered Oregon. The girls worked hard all season during practices and at meets, preparing themselves for the State Meet at Dretzka Park in Milwaukee.

When that contest came, the girls performed well placing eighth out of thirteen teams. Randi Riley took second in State for the second consecutive year and was named most valuable player on the team.

The girls' cross country coach, Tom Kirschbaum, deserves a huge note of thanks for his super job of coaching and for his dedication to the team.

Edgewood on the Run

The 1982 boys' track season was one filled with all types of disappointments. Bad weather, illness, and key injuries to Paul Waterman, Marty Balish, and Tim Berger took their toll early in the season. In the first dual meet the Crusaders were blown away by Monona Grove, and from that point on, the Crusaders never seemed to reach their potential as a team. But there were some bright spots during the season, including a 3-1 dual meet record. The Crusaders were in the prestigious invitationals at Beaver Dam and Portage and finished third in the Jefferson Relays. Two Crusaders, Kelley Delaney and Ed Donagan, qualified for State. Delaney finished third in the mile and fourth in the two-mile, while Donagan finished sixth in the long jump. Edgewood's 800 relay team also ran at State and finished an impressive fourth. The relay included Donagan, Tim Berger, John Romadka, and Joe Henricks.

The team would like to thank all of the coaches for their dedication and efforts. Coaches Thornton, Regina, Kopinski, Zalinski, and Pauley were invaluable to the team's success.

The Edgewood Varsity Baseball Team improved greatly from last year's disappointing season. The squad finished with an 8-6 record.

At the start of the season the team was optimistic but knew difficult struggles lay ahead of them. Included in the list of opponents were playing powerhouses such as Middleton, Stoughton, Beaver Dam, and Appleton Xavier. After a slow start, the spirit picked up, improving Edgewood to a 500 ball club. Led by all-city players John Lindauer, Scott Frisch, and Steve Starr and batting leader Tim Hanrahan, all on the team looked forward to a berth in the WISAA tournament in Stevens Point.

The highlights which made the season enjoyable were wins over Beloit Catholic (20-1) and Waterloo (11-1). The sweetest victory came when Edgewood triumphed over number one seed in the WISAA Tournament, Appleton Xavier, by an impressive score of 18-3.

Overall, the team enjoyed a very successful year. The ten seniors were tremendously satisfied with their last high school baseball season, and the returning lettermen are looking forward to next year. The team would like to express its sincere thanks to Coach Jon Morgan and Coach John Vraga, who was honored with the title of City Coach of the Year.

The 1982 Varsity Girls' Softball Team finished its season with a 7-6 record. It was a very busy season for the girls, although the weather was often as much to contend with as the opposing team. But with hard work and much determination the girls pulled through with satisfaction. The highlight of the season was a close win over Sheboygan North after having been badly defeated by them the previous night. Mrs. Dorothy Goldsworthy, Ms. Colleen Brady, and Marcia Hendricks deserve many thanks for their help, humor, and outstanding job of coaching.

The JV Girls' Softball Team ended up with an excellent year! Coaches Craig Andersen and Dan Prine were the fearless leaders, and, since they were returning from previous years of coaching, they were able to apply their vast experience into coaching the JV team.

Another reason for the great season was the number of sophomores who returned from Freshman Softball the year before. In addition, this year's freshman recruits were very valuable to the team's success.

Finally, the team was able to end the year with a winning season! The record was five wins and three losses, and often the losses were only by one point and the wins by ten! All in all, it was an awesome season and well worth the effort.

The 1982 Boys' Tennis Team experienced, as many would call it, a "rebuilding" year. With only two letterwinners returning, the team certainly lacked experience. Dedication and hard work, however, paid off as many individuals developed into fine players within a short time span. The team's 2-9 record does not really show how well they played, nor how close they came in several matches.

Head Coach Catherine Collins and Assistant Tom Aspinwall utilized a variety of players on the varsity level, including Jon Roth, Mike Derr, Mike Donovan, Fred Moguire, Tom Waldbillig, Sean Moriarty, Stew Stone, and Joe Martin.

The team would like to thank all the parents who have donated their time and who have supported the team emotionally as well as financially.

A Team to Be Reckoned With

Girls' Soccer had a fantastic season this year. It was a young team, with only two seniors, but included several outstanding underclassmen such as goalkeeper Maggie Earl and MVP Kim Backs. Another new addition to the team was Joe Kelley, the head coach. He came to Edgewood with a great deal of experience, including a season playing pro soccer. He and assistant coach Rom Nordman put in a lot of hours, making the players come together as a team.

The team ended its season with a record of 10-4, the best of any spring sport. They were expected to lose their last game against Memorial, but Edgewood rallied and beat the Spartans 1-0. Jackie Damm scored in the first half, and from then on it was a difficult contest against the strong Memorial team. But Edgewood held out and beat Memorial for the first time in five years. This spectacular victory showed what the players had always known — the Edgewood Girls' Soccer team is a team to be reckoned with.

The 1982 Girls' Junior Varsity Soccer Team braved a trying season. Their 1-6-3 record can be attributed to injuries and a lack of confidence. The one victory came against East, a game in which the team rallied in cold, rain, and mud to win 2-0. Other competitors were Memorial, West, LaFollette, and Oregon. Now that the team has gained unity, next year looks promising.

Each player can be proud of her effort and determination. Ann Blondin, the leading scorer, who was frequently assisted by Erin Kuno, was named Most Improved Player. Most Valuable Player Val Beyler showed courage and provided leadership. Shortly after the season began, Kelly Monohan was recruited as goalie. She improved each game and earned a fine season.

Many thanks go to Cathy "Rom" Nordman, who is as much a friend to the team as she is a coach. Her patience was incessant.

Freshmen Class Council

FRONT ROW: M. Matthews, J. Mally, C. Cary, C. Knudson BACK ROW: T. Derr, M. Wirtz, C. Jacobs, A. Birrenkott

Initially, the primary goal for the Freshmen Class Council was to encourage unity among the members of the freshman class. First, the motivated freshmen pulled together and made the magazine sale a success. Second, we worked to fulfill our year's service project of keeping Edgewood clean. Both of these activities helped unify the "newcomers" to Edgewood.

With the profit from the magazine sale, we planned a spring class trip, an eighth grade drop-in dance, and two freshmen dances. From this year's activities, the freshmen have acquired a growing sense of responsibility, and school loyalty; we look forward to the following years of growing and learning together here at Edgewood.

The sophomore class council had a very active year. Their first venture was a class trip; a busload of sophomores went to Great America. The terrific weather and all the attractions made this a fun day for all who attended. The next item on the agenda was a class service project. With good class participation, fifteen bags of clothing were collected for the needy of the community. The biggest event of the year was still to come, for Twirp '82 took place in late March. Twirp took many hours of hard work and organization, but it all paid off with the most successful Twirp in many years. On the whole, the year was a learning experience. All had a good time and were enriched with a sense of responsibility. A special thanks to moderators Mr. Zaiman and Mrs. Horinek for their guidance and cooperation.

This year the class of 1983 had an extremely productive year. The year started out enthusiastically with a service project of sending clothes and money to the town of Lesotho in Africa. The class raised a lot of money and materials for these deprived and needy people. Next was a very successful carnation sale. This year many students got in on the fun, for the class sold over three hundred carnations. Selling M and M's followed, a project handled by class council officials. On May first, the class topped off the year with one of the best junior proms ever. The class and council members received strong support and encouragement from their faculty advisors throughout the year, which added to the success of all the juniors' endeavors.

The Good Old Days

As I pulled the maroon gown and gold tasseled cap from the closet, my high school years seemed to be fading away.
I had always wanted to put those days behind me — now I wanted them to stay.
Reminiscing about those times, my brain began to deposit those memories which I thought had been erased.
The basketball games, dances, my final Homecoming night;
all of the remembered fun had not dimmed — it was still burning bright.
Rising from my bed, I got up and restlessly paced the floor. I was supposed to be excited.
The long-awaited moment of my life was finally here.
Was my anxiety from nervousness or was it from the fear that bound me — fear of the future and what it might bring seemed to have blighted my eagerness to go on. But, bringing my hand up to my face, I caught a heavy tear — the last tear of a little girl, for life ahead had been sighted.

The senior class council has had a very successful year. The class council fulfilled all of its goals. Our real goals, other than to have fun, were to sponsor a class service project, and to sponsor the Homecoming events.

Some of our other projects were the Impersonation Dance, the 60's Dance and a second Barn Dance.

We would like to thank our class advisors Ms. Brady, Sr. Maureen, and Mrs. Husom for helping us so much and for making it such an enjoyable year. We would also like to thank Edgewood for being such a significant and positive force in our lives and for all of the great memories that we will carry with us.

Pieces of Yesterday

I'm opening my yearbook
After leaving it, and yesterday, locked away in the attic
For longer than I'd ever intended. As I open the book slowly,
Parts of yesterday stare back at me.
I think of promises I made,
About never forgetting and about keeping in touch.
A quick smile flashes at me from some long ago football game,
Accompanied by an old song on the radio,
And I'm left wondering about the secrets of the past.
Slowly I turn pages of my high school life,
Looking for answers to questions I don't understand,
Like, "Where did all the time go?"
And "How could we let it slip away so suddenly?"
Now I'm on the outside, looking in . . .
With my face pressed up against the glass.
I remember the mysteries unfolding,
The friendships beginning,
And holding a fast to relationships
Even though we didn't know that they wouldn't last forever
Or that they couldn't last forever.
Now, near the end of the book,
I see the autographs . . .
Bits and pieces of so many lives remain written in my mind.
I can almost hear the laughter we shared,
And I can almost feel the tears we cried on graduation night.
Closing the book now,
I'm satisfied . . .
Yesterday was a success.

I shall pass through this world but once. If therefore, there be any kindness I can show,
or any good thing I can do, let me do it now . . . for I shall not pass this way again.

Etienne de Grellet

To me this passage symbolizes all that is needed to be successful in life. This is what we have been taught all along and something that is clearly emphasized at Edgewood. There are all sorts of opportunities for people to learn from if they chose to. The Yearbook is one such opportunity that has turned out to be a very rewarding experience. It has been both fun and discouraging at times, but it has helped build my patience, determination, and friendships with those I might not otherwise have gotten to know. I would like to thank our advisors Mr. Thering and Mrs. Caldwell for giving us so much of their time. I would also like to thank my co-editors Kim Adams, Rosalia Rivera, Liz Cranley, and Manville Smith, who have each helped get things done. Special thanks to those staff leaders who "stuck it out to the end," as well as to the Administration and Mrs. Shunk, who had to put up with all my requests. Most of all, I would like to thank Coach Maturi, to whom this Crusader is dedicated, for all he has done. He and his family are such a big part of Edgewood. He has taught me good Christian values and has developed in me his philosophy of "being the best you can be." As long as he is at Edgewood, things can only get better.

Now it is time to go on and take all I have learned to another world . . . never to pass this way again.
